

McAuley provides a distinctive Catholic education based upon Gospel Values with Christ at the Centre of all we do. It is a vibrant worshipping, sacramental community open to people of all faiths and those still exploring. Our faith is celebrated through our actions.

It is the first choice for Catholic families and an employer of first choice for staff. The school is a leading light in 11-19 education in Doncaster. Academic standards reflect the fact that, whatever their starting points, young people make brilliant progress throughout their time at the school. The academic is only one part of a focus which allows all God-given gifts and talents to be spotted and nurtured. Children feel good about themselves and proud to say they come to this school. They are listened to. The wider community especially our local parishes actively promote the school and want to be involved in it. The school actively seeks out that involvement. The Family of schools work closely together to support and share in this vision and to give students the best possible start.

Throughout the school day there is a sense of calm and purpose because everybody has a clear sense of the expectations on behaviour and attitudes to learning. Children feel safe, secure, loved and happy in school. Day to day organization is routine and unfussy. Physical space and the care of that space matters. The environment which the children and staff enter each day is attractive, bright and clean. It is safe and welcoming and is obviously child-centred by the celebration of work in the corridors and classrooms.

Time is used well. The curriculum in all its aspects motivates the children and meets their needs. The result is work which they can be justly proud. They are intellectually curious and ask deep questions of themselves, take risks in their learning and work well together. This approach helps everyone to make progress in their own unique way with a special emphasis on the well-being of the most vulnerable in our school community. In their seven years in the school each child is valued and understood as an individual; academically, intellectually, socially, emotionally and spiritually. A strong moral compass prepares them well to be caring stewards in a rapidly changing world.

Parents, as valuable partners take an active part in supporting the school and know and trust that their children are in loving hands and are nurtured as they would nurture them. Open and swift two-way communication is the basis for tutor-based Pastoral care which is based upon peace, justice and reconciliation.

Those who lead the school are optimistic, approachable and in clear, quiet command. This approach is supported by a committed and active Governing body. The leadership philosophy is marked by simplicity and strength and a well-founded trust in colleagues. Passing fads or fashions are resisted, confident in the tried and tested practices for the community of learners it serves. Leaders ensure that staff are well looked after so the trademark of the school is staff continuity and where ambition is encouraged. The Leadership of the school is distributed. There is a no blame culture.

Staff know at all times that they are the servants of the school. Their instincts are always asking what can they do to make the school better. Those that choose to leave do so for good reason and are warmly thanked for the service they have given.

This embedded culture of thinking, doing and believing is a characteristic of all staff in every job that they do whether in the classroom, the reception desk, the pastoral office, the dining room, the caretaker's room, the chaplaincy space.

McAuley staff challenge and support each other and never talk the hopes and aspirations of the school down. They do so every day the school is open and as much again when it is not. They have a passion to be the best they can be. They strive to be expert in as many ways as they can be in nurturing all members of the school community; not some of the time but all of the time.

Staff will always go the extra mile for the children in their care. Staff care, risk, dream and believe and expect more than others think possible; whatever barriers are presented in the way of a child thriving the McAuley family will find a way.
