

• General revision resources

- BBC Bitesize is a website with syllabus-specific material over a wide range of subjects.
- Evernote is an app that allows you to access your notes online and share them with your friends.
- Foraday is a calendar app that tracks your day.
- Go Congr is a website that allows you to make flash cards, mind maps, notes and slide sets.
- Hodder Education magazines are subject-specific publications aimed at A level, IB and GCSE students.
- Quizlet is a website that allows you to make flashcards and test yourself on them through memory games and exercises.
- Revision World has various different forms of revision help for multiple GCSE and A level subjects.
- Study Blue is a crowdsourced library of flash cards.
- Timetune is a schedule planning app.
- Tutor2U is a revision website with subject-specific material from teachers and schools.

• English revision websites

- GCSE and A/AS level

- No Fear Shakespeare is a translation facility for Shakespeare that puts his plays into modern English.
- A/AS level only
- Chaucer is a site that opens up into lots of separate themes and essays surrounding The Canterbury Tales. It provides some context on medieval writing and social history.
- Heuristic Media: The Tempest iPad app has a transformation of the play with its lines spoken by Ian McKellen and supporting literature around the play.
- Victorian Web is a website that opens into areas concerning Victorian culture. There is a vast range of content on authors, texts, society, history and technology.
- Touch Press Inc's The Waste Land app contains a video performance by Fiona Shaw, in-depth annotations, the original facsimile, context, images and interviews.

• Revision resources for science

• GCSE and A/AS level

- Beaker Mix Chemicals app lets you see the reactions that happen when you mix different chemicals.
- Biology Dictionary offline app gives you definitions for difficult biology terms.
- Periodic Table 2017 app is an interactive and up-to-date version of the periodic table.
- PhyWiz's Physics Solver app solves any physics problem you give it.
- The Sumanas, Inc website has information on various science subjects and topics.
- A number of science-specific apps exist for each exam board.

• A/AS level only

- Biology Guide covers AQA-specific material.

- Good maths revision websites

- GCSE only

- Education Quizzes has subject-specific quizzes.
- MisterMaths is a website with curriculum-specific worksheets.
- Study Maths is a website with revision notes, games and exercises.
- GCSE and A/AS level
- Exam Solutions has online tutorials and past papers.
- Maths Made Easy is a site with online tests, past papers and exam advice.
- MyMaths is a subscription that many schools have. It has interactive homework, webinars and revision notes.
- Revision Maths has worksheets and notes on curriculum-specific topics.
- S-cool has tests and memory exercises for subject-specific topics.
- Maths Genie has revision notes and exercises.
- A/AS level only
- Chubby Revision has revision notes for Edexcel maths.

- Humanities revision resources: geography, history, religious studies, philosophy, sociology

- GCSE and A/AS level

- The GCSE Geography app has content covering some of Edexcel, OCR and AQA syllabuses.
- Google Books and Google Scholar are good resources for further reading.
- The History Learning Site has important facts and information on key dates in history that are relevant to the GCSE and A Level curriculum.
- HistoryRevision has curriculum-specific revision notes.
- History Timeline app allows you to add events to a historical timeline and bookmark key dates.
- Mr McMillan's Revision YouTube channel has a number of revision and exam help videos for religious studies and philosophy.
- Old maps' A Touch of History app allows you to see historical maps from the 15th to the 20th century.
- Sociology Dictionary allows you to find definitions for technical sociology terms.

- A/AS level only

- Geography AS has module-specific notes for geography AS.

- Revision resources for languages: French, German, Spanish, Portuguese

- GCSE and A/AS level

- Babbel is not specifically for school exams but is a fun way of testing your language skills and covers many languages.
- Duolingo covers many languages and helps you track your progress.
- German Revision has crosswords and matching exercises for curriculum-specific topics.
- GetRevising has French, German and Spanish revision resources.
- Gojimo is a French revision app.
- The Language Gym has revision games and exercises for French and Spanish.
- S-cool has tests and memory exercises for German language.
- A/AS level only
- Jimdo has essay examples for French, Spanish and Portuguese.

• Art revision resources

- GCSE and A/AS level

- Dreams of Dalí is a 360° video that allows you to explore Dali's works of art within a surreal world.
- The Guardian art and design page includes opinion pieces on art and current exhibitions.
- Khan Academy has a series on art history.
- MOMA website has information on artistic movements including Abstract Expressionism, Cubism, Minimalism, Pop Art and Surrealism.
- Words to Use offers a list of interesting words for various colours, shades and hues.

- Music revision websites

- GCSE and A/AS level

- Touch Piano is a fun way to discover piano pieces from all ages, such as those by Debussy and Beethoven. It plays music to the tempo of keystrokes.
- YouTube has various classical music channels and allows you to hear different versions and interpretations of the same piece.

- Drama revision resources

- National Theatre Live broadcasts live performances to cinemas around the country.

- PE revision resources

- GCSE

- My PE Exam has quizzes, games and tutorials.
- An online revision guide for GCSE PE.
- Tes has a selection of paid-for and free revision material.

